Infant News

Welcome November! This week the infants are going to be working on more movement activities. They will be doing paint on canvases and moving around the paint to work on movement. They will work on pumpkin coloring with crayons to work on moving their wrist, hands and fingers. We are also taking pictures for Halloween, and fall pictures in orange and black. This is the month to be thankful and I'm so thankful to take care of your little ones!

Love Miss. Kerra

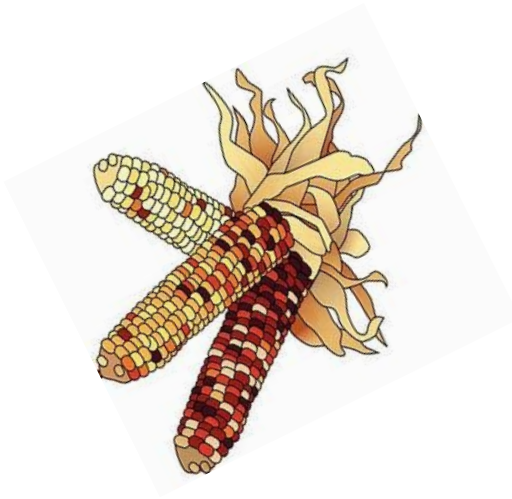

One's News

Welcome November!!!

This month's Theme is Gobble Gobble, give Thanks! We will be learning the letters b, c, and h and also the number 4. The color and shape of the month is triangle and yellow. Last month we welcomed our new friend Jax! And this month we say goodbye to our friend Daisy as she moves on up. Parents please make sure to bring extra clothes for your kids and to label everything!!

Thank you!!, Ms. Tiffani

Two's News

Let's gobble our way into November!

This month we have lots of fun activities and learning going on. The curriculum for this month includes students learning about the letters Tt, Ll, Kk. The number 5, triangles, and the color yellow. This month we will be celebrating Alessia's birthday and welcoming Daisy Into our classroom.

On November 24th the two year old classroom will be having a Thanksgiving feast where parents bring in a dish, sign up sheets will be posted the week prior.

Reminder please bring in water cups with the child's name on it.

Please label all of your belongings.

Three's News

Hello November. It's time to be thankful for friends, our family and all the new memories !!!!

It's a new month and we will be having a Thanksgiving dinner with all our friends in the classroom. We will send out more details and we will be learning about the history of Thanksgiving. We will have all the kids bring in something they're thankful for this year.

Please parents talk to your child about how important it is to their hands to themselves. This month we will be going over letters T, K, and L and the number 4.

Love, Miss. Loissa

VPK News

As our VPK children continue to learn at school, continue to work with them at home. It's very important to read to your children every night.

Please only bring toys to school on show n tell day. We will have our annual Thanksgiving feast this year with the families, please check the door for more details

We are looking forward to this, as it lets the parents know who their kiddos have been talking about all year.
